Smoky Mountain District UMW - Susan Daffron-President

Christmas will soon be here and I wonder how you are doing with the season? Is it a wonderful, story book time of the year for you or does all the shopping, cooking, cleaning, traveling, visiting family overwhelm you? Some would say, if it wasn't for all the shopping, cooking, family, etc. it wouldn't be Christmas at all. If we think back to that very first Christmas, we find it wasn't without a little chaos. Oh, there weren't shopping malls but there were animals, shepherds, wise men and a king.

In Mike Slaughter's book A Different Kind of Christmas, he shares what he calls "Right-sizing Your Life". This is based on Matthew 6:19-21 from the CEB, Stop collecting treasures for your own benefit on earth, where moth and rust eat them and where thieves break in and steal them. Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Slaughter says, "Jesus came to Earth to proclaim that the kingdom of God is near. So, what does this kingdom look like? It is the place where God's invisible rule and activity are made visible. It is the physical representation of heaven on earth, demonstrated through a community of people living in submission to God's authority – a community that puts the resources of heaven into operation.

When we acknowledge Jesus as Lord, it means he begins to define everything about our lives, including what we do with our money. But, we struggle, because God's kingdom values are upside down from the world's values. For the most of us, the primary value is financial security. That is, we don't get up in the morning with the intention of pursuing the kingdom of God; instead we go to work to earn money, pay bills, buy Christmas presents and maybe, just maybe, save a little along the way. But Jesus said that when we make the kingdom our number-one priority, we go beyond fiscal abundance to life abundance. God will take care of our needs as Matthew 6:33 states, desire first and foremost God's kingdom. Why did Jesus talk more about money than any other subject including prayer or faith? Because, your money is your demonstration of what you truly value...and whom you really trust."

When I ponder on Mr. Slaughter's thoughts, I think of all those who receive our Pledge to Mission Giving and what an impact we make here at home and overseas. Lives of women, children and youth are improved, they regain hope in a seemingly hopeless world. They know they matter and that someone cares for them. They begin to see what community is. We may never get to meet them, but we can be assured that our giving matters. I Rejoice in the Lord Always for the part that the Smoky Mountain United Methodist Women play in changing lives and circumstances. As our purpose states, "the organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church."

Thank you for fulfilling the purpose of the United Methodist Women! May God guide us in the coming year and may his will be accomplished in each of our lives. I wish you a Merry Christmas and life abundance!
